SUMMATION BY MR. POWER

Thank, thank you, Your Honour. I would join in with Mr. Levek that this is a true joint recommendation. We have had a number of discussions about what would be appropriate in the circumstances, which is always underlying for purposes of submissions. And in the circumstances, there is the denunciation and deterrence, which are contained or encapsulated in the deprivation of Mr. Carson's liberty. He'll be a four month house arrest with limited exceptions, and then to be followed by a period of probation. He - as the, the facts, I think, are well known to Your Honour, and the purpose of the P, the PSR was to show in the background to Mr. Carson that he has been a working and contributing member of society for all of his life. This is a first offence. And the risk to the community, I think, can be managed, if I could put it that way. I, I believe that it's minimal and that can be managed in the terms that we have proposed.

THE COURT: Thank you. Mr. Carson, is there anything you wish to tell me before I pass sentence?

1 GLEN CARSON: Well, Your Honour, the only thing I can say
2 is I am one million percent innocent and that is the absolute
3 God's truth. That's all I can say, sir.
